

New Jersey Youth Corps of Sussex County

Serving Sussex & Northern Warren County

Everybody struggles at times. Everybody has a different reason to motivate them. I have a baby now, and I need to step up my game, get a better education and support my child.

My favorite class is math. This program makes it fun for you.

I was going to go back to high school for 3 ½ years but I had to drop out after my baby got sick. I had too many absences and the school said I couldn't use my son's illness as an excuse. This program will allow me to get my GED quicker.

I have a part-time job now.

I want to go to college to study nursing, cosmetology or culinary arts.
