Early Childhood & Connecting NJ

Project Self-Sufficiency offers three evidence-based home visitation programs tailored to meet the needs of low-income parents. Factors such as residency, pregnancy, and the age and number of children help determine which program is best suited for the parents' needs.

Nurse Family Partnership	Healthy Families	Parents as Teachers
Low-income mothers are paired with a nurse who visits them throughout the pregnancy and up until the child's 2 nd birthday. Serving Sussex, Warren, &amp; Hunterdon Counties.	For expectant parents and parents of infants. Participation in this program can count towards Work First NJ required activities. Serving Sussex &amp; Northern Warren Counties.	For those who are pregnant or parenting an infant or toddler. Using the nationally-acclaimed Parents as Teachers curriculum. Serving Sussex &amp; Hunterdon Counties.

Help for Expectant & New Parents

Women who are pregnant or parenting a young child can receive regular consultations from a nurse or certified family support worker via online video platforms, phone, at home or in a public place through one of the three Home Visitation Programs offered by Project Self-Sufficiency in Sussex, Warren and Hunterdon counties. The visiting professionals provide support, education and counseling on health, behavioral and self-sufficiency issues.

You've got this!
And you've got support.

Project Self-Sufficiency is a community-based organization devoted to building strong futures by helping parents and children succeed together.

We offer three free, voluntary & confidential HOME VISITATION programs to meet the needs of first-time moms-to-be, new moms, and moms of toddlers.

Get help with:

- maternal and child health
- monitoring your child's development
- basic needs like diapers and food
- next steps in your education or career
- Interaction with other moms and babies

Did you know ...

There's also a FREE online tool to help you check your child's development – and connect you with resources to support you? Scan this → code on your phone, or visit the website below the code!
